

The classic stainless steel bar kit is an attractive and economical way to start into the bartending business or boost your home barware collection with durable, shiny, and practical tools. These are the bar accessories to have on hand, making them a great gift for bartending enthusiasts and bartending students.