Material	Stainless Steel
Description	Cocktails are generally known as being a mixture of exciting liquids, but of course true cocktail connoisseurs will recognise the importance of garnishes. Cocktails are wild, exotic drinks that are just as much about show as they are about taste. Some drinks make do with a quick cherry on top, or an olive swimming around, but if you want to add some flair to your concoctions, a sprinkling of citrus zest, or a twist of lime makes all the difference. The stainless steel Citrus Zester from Kitchen Craft is the ideal tool for topping off your cocktails with some extra pizzazz. The added canelle blade means you can carve the slightly larger strips of fruit to really show off your bartending skills. Of course, you don't have to restrict yourself to using this robust little tool for cocktail garnishes, it's also ideal as an everyday kitchen tool for baking garnishes.
